THE LOG-BOOK

The Mauna Loa will sail at 12 noon tomorrow for Maui and Hawaii ports.

The Maui sailed at noon today for ports on Hawaii. At 5 this afternoon the Mikahala will get away on the W. G. Hall's Kauai run.

The Lurline will return early tomorrow morning from Hilo and will sail at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon for San Francisco, taking mail, passengers and freight.

Assistant Engineer R. Marshall, of the Pleiades, has resigned from his position and will probably remain in the islands. He has some idea of a civil service appointment and assignment to the lighthouse tender Kukui.

R. L. Morse, wife and party, while out shark fishing yesterday, succeeded in harpooning a handsome specimen, measuring about twelve feet in length. The jaws will be preserved and taken by Mr. Morse to his home in Seattle. The shark was caught off Kalihi point.

The Claudine, arriving at 4:52 this morning, brought the following cargo: 1620 bags sugar, 750 bags nitrate, 42 bags bones, 20 bbls bottles, 68 hogs and 140 packages sundries.

The following affects the List of Lights, Buoys and Daymarks, 12th Light House Subdistrict, 1908, page 12.

Hilo Bay, Hawaii Islands--Cocoanut Island reef buoy 5, a 2nd class spar, reported adrift February 1, was replaced February 19.

By order of the Light House Board, STANFORD E. MOSES, Lieut. Commander, U. S. N., Assistant to the Inspector, 12th L. H. District.

The A. H. S. S. Pleiades, Captain Armstrong, arrived in port about three o'clock yesterday afternoon and moored at the railroad wharf. She was eight days, twenty-two hours from San Francisco and brought a full general cargo. No mail nor passengers. Captain Armstrong reported that foggy weather was experienced the first two days, but that afterward, until within two days of the islands, there were fine weather and moderate winds. On the morning of February 22 passed the Korea and at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning passed the Hilonian, both bound to the coast. The Pleiades will take a load of sugar here, and will sail direct for San Francisco next Saturday.

THE CHINESE PROTEST GAME.
 The Chinese Athletic Club have protested the game won from them last Sunday by the Japanese Athletic Club. The reason for the filing of the protest is that Sochi who played left field for the winners was not a duly signed up member of the Japanese team.
